Where Passion Becomes Art

The rolling hills and seascapes of the Emerald Isle merge in a fully-sculpted and illuminating scene hand set within a glass bottle.

The "Light of Ireland"

Ship-in-a-Bottle Illuminated Masterpiece

Across its infinite swells of rolling emerald hills and staggering seaside cliffs, Ireland has for centuries welcomed generations of citizens, travelers and seafaring mariners with its stunning natural beauty. Roaming its lush green countryside, visitors casually find themselves embraced by Ireland's vast and endless beauty, enhanced by the idyllic charms of the stunning lighthouses that tower above its wind-swept coastlines. Once serving as protective beacons for approaching ships, Ireland's majestic lighthouses continue to capture the imagination of historians and artists alike, standing tall as historic landmarks along many of its blissful coasts and stately islets, like County Cork's Fastnet Rock.

Now, our master artisans invite you to bring the timeless enchantment of radiant lighthouses and the pastoral beauty of the Emerald Isle into your home with the "Light of Ireland" Ship-in-a-Bottle Illuminated Masterpiece, available exclusively from Hawthorne Village, a division of the Bradford Exchange.

Fully-dimensional sculpture adds intricate detail and clarity to a timeless art form

This fully-sculpted, hand-painted tabletop masterpiece is inspired by the towering beacons of light that have stood for centuries upon the rocky shores of Irish coastlines. Presented within a clear glass bottle and hand-set by master artisans utilizing astounding and time-honored techniques, the fully-sculpted lighthouse illuminates, casting a golden radiance upon the rolling hills and meticulously sculpted miniature sailing vessel that navigates the serene emerald green waters. LED lighting nestled beneath the sculpted ocean enhances its dazzling shimmer, giving this masterful presentation a rich and inviting allure that will stand out in any room of your home. Featuring bas-relief sculpting replicating rope and cork on its neck and opening, the clear glass bottle is attractively set upon a wooden textured base that is adorned with a Celtic insignia and an inspiring sentiment of faith.
